

Roald Dahl

1. What happened at Roald Dahl's boarding school that made him want to invent an amazing chocolate bar one day?

---

2. Roald wrote to his mum every week from when he started at boarding school, until when she died 32 years later. (There were no phones or emails available.) What kind of relationship do you think they had? Why?

---

---

---

3. Would you like to go to boarding school? Why, or why not?

---

---

---

---

4. How did Road Dahl's father die?

- He was eaten by a rhinoceros.
- He had a lung infection.
- He was squished by a giant peach.

5. What does scumdidlyumptious mean? What other words does it sound like to you?

---

---

6. Roald Dahl played a trick on a mean shop lady when he was a child, and a lot of his books feature kids playing pranks on loathsome adults. What kind of grandfather do you think he would have been? Why?

---

---

7. Roald Dahl's autobiography is called "Boy". Autobiography is a word that combines three Greek words: autos (self), bios (life), and graphe (write). So Roald Dahl was writing the true story of his life in the book Boy. Why do you think people write autobiographies?
